The new Juvenile Home, according to the latest report should include 16 beds, 16 offices, and be expandable to secure detention.

Is this where expansion will end? Or will we hear in a few years: "We own half of these two blocks, we really need to square off and take the rest." The County Executive has offered a 15 year moratorium on the taking of houses if they are given the above. However, he does not have the power to uphold such a promise. Any such action could be overturned.

The attempt to combine wisdom and power has only rarely been successful and then only for a short while.
